Product overview

The Nastrino for Civil Merit of the Piedmont Region is a ceremonial ribbon intended for individuals and organizations recognized for professional, volunteer or charitable actions that helped in emergencies or addressed serious social issues. It is suitable for recipients, veteran groups, civic organizations and collectors in the military surplus and tactical community.

Definition: This is an official-style civil merit ribbon with a red field, a central gray/silver vertical stripe and a blue three-drop lambel. It is sold as a ribbon device for formal wear and display.

Main features

Clean, meaningful design and simple mounting options make this ribbon practical for formal uniforms and commemorative displays.

- Design: Red ribbon with a central gray/silver vertical stripe and a blue three-drop lambel.
- Variants: Available in regular flat format and a slightly domed "Elite" option.
- Rear attachment: Single-post rear mounting; choose between clips or screws in the purchase dropdown.
- Use cases: Intended for ceremonies, official events and commemorations.
- Purchase: Available from our military surplus and tactical ecommerce store; stock is limited.

How to use / When it’s useful

Wear the ribbon on formal uniforms, jackets or presentation boards during official ceremonies and memorial events to represent recognition of civil service and community commitment. It is commonly used by public servants, volunteers and organizations marking notable civic contributions.

Quick answer: Use it for official ceremonies, commemorations and formal displays. In most cases, choose the attachment type (clips or screws) that matches your uniform or display mounting for a secure fit.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the ribbon ready for display; store it dry and handle the mounting hardware carefully to avoid damage.

- Keep away from moisture and strong sunlight to preserve colors.
- Handle the rear post and selected clips or screws gently when attaching.
- Stock is limited — check availability before ordering.
- Returns accepted according to our store policy if you are not satisfied.
