Product overview

The Commemorative Cross for Peace Missions is a medal-style badge issued to military, civilian, foreign personnel and Red Cross staff who have served on international peacekeeping missions under agreements involving the Italian state. It is suitable for service members, veterans, collectors of military surplus and those who display tactical or duty insignia.

Definition: this is a commemorative cross that recognizes participation in peace missions outside national territory. The item is offered in two sizes and comes with a white ribbon featuring Italian tricolour bands.

Main features

Clear, symbolic design and lasting construction make this cross a formal mark of service and respect.

- Croce a Braccia Patenti (pattee cross) — traditional symbol of sacrifice and dedication.
- Olive branches surrounding the cross — representing peace and hope.
- Inscription "PER LA PACE" engraved at the center to state the mission purpose.
- Reverse with five-point star — sign of distinction and recognition.
- Ribbon: white with three central tricolour bands (green-white-red), each 4 mm wide.
- Available sizes: 37 mm (standard, ceremonial) and 20 mm (reduced, discreet).
- High-quality materials to preserve appearance and durability over time.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the 37 mm cross for official ceremonies and the 20 mm version for daily uniform or discreet display. This commemorative cross can also be kept as part of a collection of military surplus or tactical memorabilia.

In most cases, recipients display the cross on formal uniforms, service racks or presentation cases to mark participation in peace missions. It is appropriate for military, civilian staff and humanitarian personnel who meet the award criteria.

Care and notes

Proper care will help the cross retain its finish and detail. Follow these simple steps to protect the item and its ribbon.

- Store in a dry, cool place and avoid prolonged exposure to sunlight.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or strong chemicals.
- Handle the ribbon with care to prevent fraying; consider a display case for long-term preservation.
- Limited availability: demand is high, so check stock before ordering.
