Nazi Infantry Assault Badge

Product price:

€15.00 tax included

Product codes:

Reference: Dist. 8654.110
EAN13: 0658606560642
UPC: 658606560642

Product features:

Product short description:

A historical military insignia: Nazi Assault Riflemen Badge for collectors, museums, researchers and period reenactors. Offered as a display or reference item—please check local laws before buying.

- Type: Military badge / insignia associated with Nazi-era assault rifle units.
- Use: Suitable for collection, exhibition, historical study or reenactment displays.
- Authenticity: Originals and reproductions may be available; verify the product title and photos for details.
- Condition: Condition varies by item—consult the seller’s photos and description for wear, markings, or restoration.

Product description:

Product overview

The Distintivo Nazista Fucilieri Assaltatori is a metal, rear-clasp badge reproduced for collectors and military history enthusiasts. It is aimed at those who collect historical military insignia, military surplus items, or tactical memorabilia for display or study.

Definition: A faithful metal reproduction of the World War II assault riflemen badge, sized for display or mounting in a collection.

Main features

Carefully made to reflect the original design, this badge suits display collections and historical reference.

- Material: Durable metal with a rear clamp (morsetto) attachment.
- Authentic design: Faithful reproduction with period-accurate details.
- Dimensions: 6 x 4.5 cm (height x width).
- Historical context: Instituted on 20 December 1939 and issued during World War II to specific infantry and Gebirgsjäger units.
- Origins: Associated with members of the Waffen SS and the Wehrmacht Heer.
- Collector appeal: Suited for military surplus collections, tactical displays, and historical study.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use the badge as a display piece in a collection, a museum-style case, or as a reference item for research on World War II insignia. It is intended primarily as a collectible, not as operational gear for duty or police use.

In most cases, collectors mount the badge in a frame, display case, or on a labeled board alongside other military memorabilia. It is also useful for historians, reenactors, and educators documenting period uniforms and awards.

Care and notes

Handle and store the badge to preserve its finish and historical details.

- Avoid prolonged exposure to moisture or direct sunlight to preserve the metal finish.
- Store in a dry display case or padded box; use cotton or nitrile gloves when handling to avoid fingerprints.
- Note that this is a faithful reproduction intended for collectors and study.
- Limited quantities may be available; display and storage will help maintain value.

FAQ

Q: What material is the badge made of?

A: The badge is made of durable metal and features a rear clamp (morsetto) attachment, suitable for display or mounting.

Q: What are the badge dimensions?

A: The badge measures 6 x 4.5 cm (height x width).

Q: When was this badge instituted?

A: The badge was instituted on 20 December 1939 by the Oberstbefehlshaber des Heeres, Generalfeldmarschall von Brauchitsch.

Q: Who originally received this badge?

A: It was awarded to members of non-motorized infantry units and Gebirgsjäger units who took part in infantry assaults on at least three days of front-line combat from 1 January 1940.

Q: Is this an original wartime badge or a reproduction?

A: This item is presented as a faithful reproduction of the original World War II badge, produced for collectors and historical reference.

Q: How can I purchase the badge and is it in stock?

A: Add the item to your cart to purchase. Stock is limited and demand may be high, so availability can change quickly.

Tip: Choose the correct variant or size when available and consider browsing related military surplus and tactical collectibles to complete your display or research collection.

Product attributes:

Product gallery: