How to use / When it’s useful

Attach the leather ends to the trouser buttons (internal button fit) and use the clamp to set your preferred length. These suspenders work well for trousers with buttons and for styles that favour a military or duty appearance.

Quick answer: Yes — they fasten to trousers equipped with internal buttons and the clamp lets you adjust the fit.
In most cases, these suspenders are ideal for tactical, military surplus, duty-style, and casual outfits where secure, comfortable support is needed.

Care and notes

Keep the suspenders in good condition with simple care and mindful use.

- Wipe the elastic and leather ends with a damp cloth; avoid soaking the leather.
- Do not machine wash or tumble dry to preserve elasticity and leather quality.
- Store flat or hanging to prevent twisting or stretching.
- Check leather ends and clamps periodically for wear before regular use.
