Product overview

The Crest Araldico Esercito Italiano is a decorative military crest for collectors, history enthusiasts, and professionals who display military insignia. Definition: this is a brass, fired-enamel heraldic crest mounted on a wooden base that reproduces the Esercito Italiano coat of arms.

Designed for display in offices, home collections, museums, or duty rooms, it suits buyers interested in military surplus, tactical decor, or police and duty memorabilia. The piece blends historical symbolism with quality materials for lasting presentation.

Main features

Key features at a glance—crafted for durability and faithful detail.

- High-quality materials: fired-enamel brass crest on a solid wooden base for strength and visual appeal.
- Detailed heraldry: red-background shield showing a Roman cuirass and helmet over two rifles, two lances, two cannons and two axes.
- Additional elements: two silver-colored lightning bolts above the axes and two silver axes placed horizontally with blades down.
- Historic motto: cartouche bears Cicero’s phrase "Salus Rei Publicae Suprema Lex Esto".
- Size: wooden crest 17.5 x 22.5 cm; internal enameled shield 8 x 9 cm.
- Authenticity: supplied with a commercial-license hologram to confirm licensed authenticity.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use it as a display piece on a shelf, desk, or wall-mounted plaque in an office, den, or ceremonial space. It works well as a focal item in a military or police collection.

In most cases, collectors and institutions place it on a stand or mount it on a wall where the enamel and brass can be seen without direct exposure to harsh conditions. It is appropriate for tactical-themed displays, military surplus shops, and duty-room decor.

Care and notes

Maintain appearance and longevity with basic care suited to metal and wood finishes.

- Dust regularly with a soft cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners on enamel and brass.
- Keep dry and avoid prolonged exposure to direct sunlight or extreme humidity to protect wood and enamel.
- Avoid impact or rough handling to prevent chipping of the enamel or dents in the brass.
- Hologram indicates a licensed commercial product; handle documentation as proof of authenticity.

FAQ

Q: What materials are used in the crest?

A: The crest is made of fired-enamel brass mounted on a wooden base. These materials combine visual detail with durable construction.

Q: What are the crest dimensions?

A: The wooden crest measures 17.5 x 22.5 cm, and the internal enameled shield measures 8 x 9 cm—compact for display on shelves or small wall spaces.

Q: Is the crest authentic or officially licensed?

A: The item includes a commercial-license hologram that confirms it is a licensed product. It is presented as an authorized reproduction for collectors.

Q: What does the inscription on the cartouche mean?

A: The cartouche quotes Cicero: "Salus Rei Publicae Suprema Lex Esto," commonly rendered as "The safety of the state must be the highest law." It adds historical and symbolic context.

Q: Can I display this crest outdoors?

A: It is intended for indoor display. Exposure to weather, moisture, or direct sunlight can damage the wood finish and enamel over time.

Q: Is the crest available in other sizes or variations?

A: This listing describes the specific size and configuration shown. Check the store for additional items or related military and tactical display pieces.

Tip: Choose the correct variant or size for your display area and consider browsing related military, tactical, or police decor to create a coordinated collection or gift set.
