Product overview

The Divisa Gala Volontari in Servizio Permanente (VSP) is a formal gala uniform designed for volunteer personnel in permanent service who attend ceremonies, parades and official events. It is intended for service members who require a polished, regulation-style uniform for formal duty.

Definition: a double-breasted ceremonial uniform in cady fabric, complete with shirt, tie and standard gala accessories.

Main features

Designed for ceremonial use, this uniform combines tailored styling with complete accessory set to meet formal appearance needs for military duty and ceremonial occasions.

- High-quality material: Made in cady fabric known for a smooth, formal appearance and good durability.
- Classic cut: Double-breasted jacket with six buttons and two side pockets without flaps; classic-cut trousers.
- Made-to-measure available: Off-the-rack sizes in stock; custom tailoring offered for non-standard or shaped sizes (approx. 15% surcharge).
- Included accessories: Travette or badge holders with applied insignia, peaked cap with millerighe band, soggolo and cap badge, white pure-cotton shirt with double cuffs, black silk tie, white leather gloves and black smooth leather shoes.
- Optional decorations: Ribbons and gala medal racks can be added on request according to mission count or seniority.
- Visual reference: Product images show rank arrangements for VSP: Primo Caporal Maggiore, Caporal Maggiore Scelto, Caporal Maggiore Capo and Caporal Maggiore Capo Scelto.

How to use / When it’s useful

The uniform is intended for formal ceremonies, official parades and other protocol events where a gala uniform is required. Wear with the included shirt, tie, gloves and shoes for a complete ceremonial set.

Quick answer: Use this uniform for ceremonial and formal duty occasions where regulation appearance is required.

In most cases, choose a stock size if it fits; request made-to-measure if you have non-standard proportions or require a tailored fit.

Care and notes

Follow garment care and service regulations to keep the uniform in proper condition; professional cleaning is recommended for formal fabrics and accessories.

- Dry-clean the cady jacket and trousers to preserve fabric and shape.
- Store the uniform on a wide hanger and keep accessories in a protective box to avoid creasing or damage.
- Ribbons and medal racks are produced on request and will be sized/quantified according to documented missions or years of service.
- Note: Military regulation does not include a sabre for this VSP uniform; a sabre can be discussed at order time if specifically requested.

FAQ

Q: What material is the uniform made of?

A: The uniform is made in cady, a formal fabric chosen for its smooth appearance and durability. It is suitable for ceremonial use and professional cleaning.

Q: Can the uniform be made to measure?

A: Yes. Standard sizes are in stock, and made-to-measure tailoring is available for non-regular or shaped sizes with an approximate 15% price increase.

Q: Which accessories are included with the uniform?

A: The set includes travette or badge holders with the applicable insignia, peaked cap with millerighe band, soggolo and cap badge, white cotton shirt with double cuffs, black silk tie, white leather gloves and black smooth leather shoes.

Q: Can I add ribbons and a gala medal rack?

A: Yes. Ribbons and a gala medagliere are available on request and will be produced according to the number of missions completed or seniority.

Q: Is the uniform available from stock?

A: Yes, the uniform is generally available in stock. If you require a made-to-measure garment, please select the custom option and allow additional production time.

Q: Is a sabre included with the uniform?

A: No. Current regulation for the VSP uniform does not provide for a sabre. A sabre may be considered and discussed at order time if specifically requested by the customer.

Tip: Choose the correct size or request made-to-measure for the best fit; check ranks and insignia needs before ordering and browse related ceremonial items to complete your full dress kit.
