- Size: 4 cm diameter, designed for standard beret placement.
- Exclusive sale: reserved for Carabinieri personnel or licensed collectors.
- Identity verification: purchase requires a PDF copy of the military ID or delivery to the unit/station where you serve.
- Collector access: collectors may buy with a prefectural licence under art. 28 TULPS.
- Symbolic value: represents service, rank and tradition within the Arma dei Carabinieri.

How to use / When it's useful

Wear the badge centered on the beret as part of the uniform for formal, ceremonial, or duty use when authorized. Collectors typically keep it stored or display it as part of a military surplus or historical collection.

Quick answer: If you are serving Carabinieri personnel with proof of identity, you may purchase and wear it on the beret. In most cases, collectors must present the prefectural licence and follow legal requirements for acquisition and possession.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves the finish and the badge's appearance while respecting the legal sale restrictions.

- Store dry and avoid prolonged exposure to moisture to protect the metal finish.
- Clean gently with a soft cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners that may damage plating.
- Sale restricted: verification of military ID is required or delivery must be to your command station/caserma.
- Collectors must provide the prefectural licence as required by art. 28 TULPS.
