Product overview

The Berretto Gala Generale di Brigata is a formal dress cap designed for officers holding the rank of Generale di Brigata (Brigadier General) in the armed forces. It is aimed at military personnel who require an official, ceremonial headpiece for parades, formal duties and representational events.

Definition: A ceremonial dress cap for Brigadier Generals, made with durable materials and traditional insignia. The sale is reserved for serving armed forces members and verified collectors under the applicable regulations.

Main features

This ceremonial cap combines traditional styling with robust construction suitable for military, duty and tactical dress uniforms.

- High-quality materials: Constructed in cordellino with a black damask band for durability and formal appearance.
- Metal insignia: Silver-toned metal eagle mounted on scarlet red cloth at the center, signifying authority.
- Silver chin cord: Braided silver soggolo with a black-edged galloon for a refined finish.
- Reserved sale: Available only to armed forces personnel and authorized collectors.
- Verification required: Purchase requires identity verification via military ID or shipment to the buyer’s Command.
- Preparation time: Each cap requires 4 working days for assembly to ensure quality and detail.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear this cap with full dress and ceremonial uniforms for parades, official ceremonies and formal duty appearances. It serves as a visible symbol of rank and authority in ceremonial contexts.

In most cases, pair the cap with the standard dress uniform and insignia appropriate to the wearer’s service branch. For collectors, presentation and legal documentation must follow the rules stated by authorities before purchase.

Care and notes

Handle and store the cap carefully to preserve its materials and metal details; routine maintenance will keep its appearance suitable for formal use.

- Store in a cool, dry place and protect the eagle emblem from scratches.
- Light surface cleaning only; consult a textile or uniform specialist for deep cleaning.
- Sale restricted to armed forces personnel or verified collectors—identity check required.
- Collectors must provide a copy of the prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS to complete purchase.
- Allow 4 working days for assembly and final preparation before shipping or pickup.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Berretto Gala Generale di Brigata?

A: The sale is reserved for members of the armed forces. Verified collectors with the proper prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS may also buy this item.

Q: How do I verify my identity to buy the cap?

A: Identity must be confirmed with a valid military ID card or by arranging shipment to the buyer’s Command headquarters as proof of service.

Q: How long does it take to prepare the cap?

A: Preparation and assembly require 4 working days to ensure all details meet quality standards before delivery.

Q: What materials and insignia are used?

A: The cap is made in cordellino with a black damask band, a silver-toned metal eagle on scarlet red cloth, and a braided silver chin cord with a black-edged galloon.

Q: Can collectors buy this cap?

A: Yes. Collectors must send a copy of the prefectoral license (art. 28 TULPS) as required for verification before purchase is approved.

Q: Is availability limited?

A: Yes. Due to the restricted sale and careful assembly process, quantities are limited. Ordering early helps secure your desired size and variant.

Tip: Choose the correct size using the available size guide and consider related ceremonial uniform items to complete your presentation; if you are unsure, verify fit and documentation before ordering.
