Product overview

The Nastrino Hochwasser Land Niedersachsen 2013 is a service ribbon awarded to personnel who assisted during the 2013 flood response in Lower Saxony and Brandenburg. It is intended for veterans, service members, emergency responders and collectors in the military surplus, tactical, and police communities.

Definition: a 37 mm commemorative service ribbon with a bronzed metal centerpiece bearing the Land Niedersachsen emblem, issued to recognize participation in flood relief operations in 2013.

Main features

Simple, respectful design built for display on uniforms or ceremonial wear, available in standard and slightly domed finishes with two attachment options.

- Color and symbolism: red background with two 2 mm white vertical stripes at the edges representing courage and recovery.
- Centerpiece: bronzed metal rosette showing the rearing horse in a shield with the inscription "LAND NIEDERSACHSEN HOCHWASSER 2013".
- Size: standard 37 mm regulation format, suitable for uniforms and ceremony.
- Finishes: flat regular or slightly domed "Elite" variant for extra depth.
- Attachment options: clip (quick-fit) or screws (permanent, stable).
- Compatibility: fits on multi-ribbon display holders and standard ribbon mounts used in military surplus and duty displays.

How to use / When it’s useful

Wear the ribbon on service uniforms, dress jackets, or display it in a ribbon holder alongside other campaign or service ribbons. It is suitable for formal events, commemorations, and museum or collector displays.

Quick answer: use the clip for easy on/off, or choose screws for long-term, secure mounting. In most cases, the 37 mm standard size fits routine uniform layouts and multi-ribbon holders used by military, police, and emergency services.

Care and notes

Store and display the ribbon where it is protected from moisture and strong sunlight to preserve colors and metal detail.

- Avoid abrasive cleaners on the bronzed centerpiece; wipe with a soft, dry cloth.
- Choose clip attachment for temporary wear; choose screws for permanent display.
- Check compatibility if mounting with other ribbons on a multi-ribbon holder.
- Packaging options and attachment choices are selectable at purchase (sold by Tutto Militare).

FAQ

Q: What does the Nastrino Hochwasser 2013 represent?

A: It recognizes personnel who took part in flood relief operations in Lower Saxony and Brandenburg during the 2013 Hochwasser. It is a token of gratitude from regional authorities.

Q: What are the attachment options?

A: Two options are available: a clip for quick fitting and removal, and screws for a more permanent, secure attachment.

Q: Which formats can I choose?

A: The ribbon is offered in a flat regular format and a slightly domed "Elite" variant that adds visual depth while keeping the same 37 mm size.

Q: Can I display this ribbon with other awards?

A: Yes. The ribbon is compatible with standard multi-ribbon holders and can be combined with other service ribbons for an organized display.

Q: Is this an official regional recognition?

A: The ribbon commemorates the flood relief operations in 2013 and reflects the regional recognition tied to Land Niedersachsen; its design references that historical context.

Q: Where can I order the ribbon and choose options?

A: The ribbon is available from Tutto Militare with selectable finish, attachment type and packaging at the point of purchase. Options are chosen from the product menu before checkout.

Tip: When ordering, select the finish (flat or Elite) and the attachment type that best suits how you plan to wear or display the ribbon; browse related service ribbons and multi-ribbon holders to create a neat, professional presentation.
