Product overview

The Mostrine 9° Col Moschin are a pair of enamel insignia made for members of the 9° Reggimento d'Assalto Paracadutisti Col Moschin and for verified collectors. Definition: a pair of enamel regimental insignia (mostrine) intended for wear or collection by authorized personnel.

These tactical insignia suit military, duty, and military surplus collectors who need an authentic symbol of unit affiliation. Sales are reserved to Corps members; verified collectors must provide the required prefecture license (ex art. 28 TULPS).

Main features

Clear design and durable materials make these insignia suitable for uniform wear or careful collection.

- Distinctive design: Black enamel, double-pointed flame shape with a reduced seven-point gold-matte wing on the inner tip; features a parachute and a silver gladius with a scarlet guard.
- Size: Pair measures 25 x 50 mm.
- Materials: Black enamel with gold-matte and silver details for lasting appearance.
- Restricted sale: Available to members of the Corps; collectors must submit a prefecture license (ex art. 28 TULPS).
- Secure delivery: Shipment is made directly to the recipient’s barracks for Corps members.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the insignia on the appropriate uniform locations as directed by unit regulations, or keep them in a protected display for collection. These mostrine identify affiliation and service within the 9° Reggimento d'Assalto Paracadutisti Col Moschin.

In most cases, members will receive shipment at their barracks; collectors should prepare the required documentation before ordering. For display, store the pair in a dry, stable environment to preserve enamel and metal finishes.

Care and notes

Basic care extends the life and appearance of the insignia; follow unit rules for wear and handling.

- Handle with clean hands and avoid abrasive contact to protect the enamel finish.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid chemical cleaners that may damage metal or enamel.
- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight to prevent fading or corrosion.
- Purchase restrictions: sale is reserved to Corps members; collectors must submit a copy of the prefecture license (ex art. 28 TULPS).
