Product overview

The NATO Article 5 Medal is a bronze commemorative medal intended for collectors, veterans, and anyone interested in military surplus, tactical memorabilia, or police and duty awards. It represents recognition linked to NATO operations launched after the September 11 attacks and is aimed at those who value military history and service symbols.

Definition: The NATO Article 5 Medal is a circular bronze medal modeled on the decoration associated with NATO Article 5 operations. The design includes the NATO star, an olive branch wreath, bilingual inscriptions, and a distinctive light-blue ribbon with white and gold stripes.

Main features

A carefully produced commemorative piece, suitable for display, collection, or reference in historical and tactical gear inventories.

- Material: Bronze construction for durability and a classic appearance.
- Size: Available only in the 37 mm diameter format.
- Obverse design: NATO star surrounded by an olive leaf wreath, symbolizing unity and peace.
- Reverse inscriptions: "North Atlantic Treaty Organization" and "at the service of peace and freedom" in English and French.
- Ribbon: NATO light-blue ribbon with two white side stripes and a central gold band representing Article 5 operations.
- Intended uses: Collector display, historical reference, tactical and military surplus collections.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use this medal as a commemorative item for display, a collector’s piece, or as part of a military surplus and tactical gear collection. It is suitable for display cases, shadow boxes, or exhibition with other duty and police memorabilia.

In most cases, wearing this item on an official uniform depends on the issuing authority and unit rules; please verify regulations before use. It is most useful for collectors, museums, reenactors, and enthusiasts of NATO history and tactical gear.

Care and notes

Keep the medal and ribbon in good condition with simple, careful maintenance suited to bronze and fabric items.

- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight to protect ribbon colors.
- Clean bronze gently with a soft cloth; avoid harsh chemicals that can damage the finish.
- Handle the ribbon carefully to prevent fraying or staining.
- Note limited availability—quantities are small due to demand.
- Check local and organizational rules before displaying or wearing on an official uniform.

FAQ

Q: What are the dimensions of the medal?

A: The medal is available only in the 37 mm diameter format. This single size is the standard offered for this product.

Q: What material is the medal made from?

A: The medal is made of bronze, chosen for durability and a traditional appearance suitable for collectors and display.

Q: What do the ribbon colors mean?

A: The light-blue NATO ribbon with white side stripes symbolizes peace, while the central gold band represents the Article 5 operations associated with NATO activities.

Q: What inscriptions are on the medal?

A: The reverse is engraved with "North Atlantic Treaty Organization" and the phrase "at the service of peace and freedom" in both English and French.

Q: Is this an official NATO-issued medal?

A: This product reproduces the design linked to the NATO Article 5 recognition for commemorative and collector purposes. For confirmation of official issuance or entitlements, consult the relevant military or NATO authorities.

Q: Can I wear this medal on an official uniform?

A: Uniform wear rules vary by country and service branch. In most cases, personnel must follow their unit or national regulations before displaying or wearing any commemorative or surplus medals.

Tip: Choose this 37 mm variant if you want an accurate commemorative piece; check related military surplus and tactical items in the collection to complete a display. Consider browsing matching display cases and mounts to present the medal professionally.
