- Sizes: Available in 37 mm and 20 mm, selectable from the product menu.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use the 37 mm size for visible display in frames or shadow boxes and the 20 mm for compact displays or grouped collections. The medal works well as a display piece, gift, or part of a military memorabilia collection.

In most cases, collectors and military history enthusiasts choose the size based on available display space and personal preference. It also serves as a meaningful gift for those interested in NATO operations, military history, or military surplus items.

Care and notes

Basic care will keep the bronze medal looking its best and preserve its historical value.

- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight to prevent tarnish.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners that can damage bronze.
- Handle by the ribbon or edges to reduce fingerprints on the medal face.
- Limited availability: demand can be high, so check current stock before deciding.

FAQ

Q: What sizes are available for this medal?

A: The medal is available in two sizes: 37 mm and 20 mm. Select the desired size from the product drop-down menu before adding to cart.

Q: What material is the medal made from?

A: The medal is made of bronze with a bronzed metal clasp on the ribbon. The listing describes the construction and finish details.

Q: What do the symbols on the medal represent?

A: The NATO star and olive-leaf wreath on the obverse symbolize NATO and the pursuit of peace and unity. The reverse includes the organization's title and a peace-related inscription in English and French.

Q: Does the ribbon have a specific meaning?

A: Yes. The NATO blue ribbon with two white side stripes is a traditional color and pattern associated with NATO medals; the bronzed clasp marked "Former Yugoslavia" identifies the area of service.

Q: Is this medal suitable as a gift?

A: Yes. It makes a thoughtful gift for military history enthusiasts, collectors, and those interested in NATO operations because of its historical significance and presentation.

Q: Is this an original issued medal or a reproduction?

A: The product description lists the medal's material and design features. If provenance or an original issue certificate is required, please contact the seller to confirm the item's history and documentation.

Tip: Choose the size that best fits your display—37 mm for prominent framed displays, 20 mm for compact or grouped collections—and consider browsing related military surplus and collector items to complete your presentation.
