Product overview

The Medaglia Operazione Balcani Non Article 5 Nato is a bronze commemorative medal for collectors, historians, museums and enthusiasts of military surplus, tactical and police memorabilia. Definition: it is a circular bronze medal representing NATO operations in the former Yugoslavia during the Joint Endeavour mission.

The medal covers NATO activity in the former Yugoslavia — Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, Albania and Macedonia — from 1 January 2003 to 29 March 2010. The obverse bears the NATO star surrounded by an olive wreath; the reverse shows the title and wording in English and French referring to service for peace and freedom.

Main features

Clear design and collector-focused presentation; available in two sizes for display or storage.

- Material: Bronze construction for long-term durability.
- Design: Circular medal with NATO star and olive wreath on the front.
- Inscriptions: Reverse includes "North Atlantic Treaty Organization" and a phrase in English and French indicating service for peace and freedom.
- Ribbon: NATO blue with a central white vertical stripe and a silver band.
- Sizes: Choose 37 mm or 20 mm from the dropdown menu.
- Symbolism: White stripe for peace; silver stripe for the Non-Article 5 operation.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this medal for display in a collection, museum case, or as a reference piece for research into NATO operations. Quick answer: it is primarily a collector and display item, not a service entitlement document.

It is useful when cataloguing military surplus or building a thematic exhibit on NATO operations in the Balkans. In most cases, buyers are collectors, historians, or institutions seeking authentic-style commemorative pieces for study or presentation.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the bronze finish in good condition; handle by the edges and store in a dry place.

- Keep away from strong chemicals and abrasive cleaners to avoid surface damage.
- Store in a dry, lined box or display case to prevent tarnish.
- Handle with clean hands or gloves to reduce oils and fingerprints.
- Note limited availability: select your preferred size (37 mm or 20 mm) before checkout.
