How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear the sash from the right shoulder to the left hip, above other decoration scarves, with the Italian tricolour facing upward. It is a formal accessory for inaugurations, honors and state funerals.

In most cases, the sash is used by military officers and public officials at official ceremonies; its use follows established protocols and is intended to signal authority, dignity and office.

Care and notes

Basic care and important notes to preserve appearance and follow protocol.

- Professional dry cleaning is recommended for silk garments to preserve colour and weave.
- Store flat or rolled, away from direct sunlight and moisture to avoid fading or damage.
- Handle gently to protect the fringe and net-covered tassels.
- Use and display are subject to official protocol—confirm regulations for your corps or office before use.

- Limited availability: stock is produced in small quantities due to material and traditional workmanship.
