Product overview

The Hand-Embroidered Aeronautica Militare Insignia is a gold bullion cap badge made for the rigid dress cap of the Italian Air Force. It is intended for serving Aeronautica Militare personnel and for civilians only when they hold the required prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS.

Definition: a hand-embroidered insignia (fregio) in gold bullion (canutiglia oro), designed to sit on the rigid Aeronautica Militare cap. This piece is valued by military personnel, duty uniform users, and military surplus collectors.

Main features

High-quality workmanship and the official Aeronautica Militare emblem, sized for proper placement on the rigid cap.

- Hand-embroidered: Made by skilled artisans using precise hand stitching.
- Gold bullion (canutiglia oro): Traditional gold thread gives the insignia its formal look.
- Official design: Upright eagle flanked by two fruiting fronds and topped by a turreted crown.
- Size: 7.5 cm diameter — suitable for the rigid Aeronautica Militare cap.
- Restricted sale: Reserved for Aeronautica Militare personnel; civilians require a prefectoral license (art. 28 TULPS).
- Collector value: Appreciated by duty uniform wearers and military surplus collectors for its historical and ceremonial character.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear this insignia on the rigid dress cap of the Aeronautica Militare to display rank and unit affiliation, or keep it as part of a uniform or military surplus collection. It is intended for formal uniform use and display.

In most cases, serving personnel will supply ID or purchase through service channels; civilian buyers must present the required prefectoral license. The insignia is suitable for ceremonial dress, uniform restoration, or collector displays related to tactical and military duty gear.

Care and notes

Handle and store the insignia carefully to preserve the gold bullion threads and detailed embroidery.

- Avoid prolonged exposure to moisture and direct sunlight.
- Store flat or in a padded container to prevent crushing the embroidery.
- Light dusting with a soft brush is recommended; avoid machine washing or harsh chemicals.
- Sale is restricted: military personnel must provide service ID; civilians need a prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy this hand-embroidered Aeronautica Militare insignia?

A: The sale is reserved to Aeronautica Militare personnel. Civilian purchases are permitted only with a prefectoral license as required by art. 28 TULPS.

Q: What are the exact dimensions of the insignia?

A: The insignia measures 7.5 cm and is sized to fit the rigid Aeronautica Militare cap with correct proportions for dress use.

Q: How is the insignia made?

A: It is hand-embroidered using traditional gold bullion thread (canutiglia oro) by skilled artisans, ensuring attention to detail and durability.

Q: What is the design of the fregio?

A: The design shows an upright eagle encircled by two fruiting fronds and surmounted by a turreted crown, following the Aeronautica Militare emblem.

Q: Why is purchase restricted?

A: The insignia represents official Aeronautica Militare regalia; to protect its proper use, sales are limited to authorized personnel or civilians with the legal prefectoral authorization.

Q: Can I wear this on other caps or uniforms?

A: It is designed for the rigid Aeronautica Militare cap. Use on other headgear may affect appearance and is subject to uniform regulations; check relevant duty or ceremonial rules before fitting.
