Product overview

The Scarpe Divisa Ordinaria Esercito Italiano EI are low leather uniform shoes designed for personnel of the Esercito Italiano (EI). They suit regular duty, formal events and other uniform requirements where a polished, durable dress shoe is needed.

Definition: These are calf-leather, low-profile dress shoes in Testa di Moro (dark brown) made for military uniform use. Crafted for durability and comfort, they balance formal appearance with practical features for daily duty, tactical support, and police-style uniform needs.

Main features

Key construction and design elements that support long wear and formal appearance.

- Upper: Premium calf leather for durability and a classic look.
- Sole: Rubber half-sole (mezza piantina) with a reinforced welt (guardolo) for grip and longevity.
- Ventilated quarters: Two-piece quarter design with five eyelets per side to aid breathability.
- Heel support: Leather heel strap for added foot stability and a neat finish.
- Versatile use: Suitable for daily duty wear and formal ceremonies.
- Sizes: Available in a wide range of sizes to fit most personnel.

How to use / When it’s useful

These shoes are intended for uniform wear during regular duty, inspections and official ceremonies. They are also appropriate for roles that require a formal, durable shoe such as certain police or security duties.

Quick answer: Use them as your standard uniform dress shoe for day-to-day duty and formal events. In most cases, choose your normal dress shoe size and consult the product size guide before ordering to ensure the best fit.

Care and notes

Simple care extends the life and appearance of the leather and sole. Follow these practical steps to maintain condition and fit.

- Wipe clean with a soft brush or damp cloth after use; allow to dry naturally away from direct heat.
- Apply a suitable leather conditioner or cream periodically to preserve suppleness and color.
- Refer to the product size guide before purchase; sizes may differ from casual footwear.
- Stock can be limited due to demand; order promptly if you need a specific size.

FAQ

Q: What materials are these shoes made from?

A: The shoes use premium calf leather for the upper and a rubber half-sole with a reinforced welt. Construction focuses on durability and a formal look suitable for uniform use.

Q: Are these shoes suitable for daily duty?

A: Yes. They are designed for everyday uniform wear, combining a formal appearance with features meant to improve comfort and grip during regular service.

Q: Do these shoes work for formal ceremonies?

A: Yes. The low-profile, dark brown finish and neat construction make them appropriate for ceremonies, inspections and official events requiring a polished uniform shoe.

Q: How do I choose the right size?

A: Check the product size guide on the product page before ordering. In general, select the same size you wear in dress shoes and allow for minor differences in fit based on sole and construction.

Q: Are these shoes suitable for tactical or police use?

A: They are intended for uniform dress and duty roles where a formal appearance is required. For heavy tactical use or rough terrain, consider purpose-made tactical footwear.

Q: Is availability limited?

A: The shoes are in demand and stock can be limited. If you need a specific size or quantity, we recommend ordering promptly to avoid backorders.

Tip: Choose the correct size using the product size guide and consider related duty and uniform accessories while browsing to complete your kit. Adding items to your cart now can help secure sizes that are in high demand.
