- High-quality fabric chosen for resistance and long life.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this beret as part of a naval or ceremonial uniform, for historical displays, or as a distinctive accessory in civilian wear. It is appropriate for formal events, parades, commemorations and everyday wear when a clean, structured appearance is required.

Quick answer: wear it centered on the head with the badge over the left eye for a traditional look. In most cases, the gros-grain edge improves fit and prevents the beret from leaving marks after long use.
