Product overview

This is an embroidered shoulder patch for the 216^ Compagnia Controcarri Val Natisone, designed for collectors, veterans, and users of tactical, military surplus, duty or police uniforms. Definition: an embroidered patch that represents the insignia and tradition of the 216^ Compagnia Controcarri Val Natisone.

The patch features three bayonets topped by the Val Natisone edelweiss star and is sized to fit camouflage uniforms without being bulky. Stock is limited, so availability can be constrained for collectors and kit builders.

Main features

Durable, wearable design made for mounting on field uniforms or display. Natural keyword variations included for search: tactical patch, military patch, uniform badge.

- Distinctive design: Three bayonets with the Val Natisone edelweiss star.
- Size: 5.5 x 8 cm — compact for shoulder or chest placement.
- Embroidered construction: Stitched detail for a clear, lasting emblem.
- Durable materials: Made from resilient fabrics intended for long-term use.
- Easy attachment: Can be sewn on or applied with hook-and-loop (velcro).

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: attach the patch to your camouflage jacket, smock, or tactical plate carrier where unit insignia is normally worn. Use stitching for a permanent fit or velcro for removable placement.

In most cases, the patch is used on field uniforms, display panels, or within collections of military surplus and duty gear. It also works as a unit remembrance item for veterans and supporters.

Care and notes

Keep the patch clean and inspect attachment points regularly to maintain appearance and fit.

- Hand-wash gently or spot-clean to preserve embroidery.
- Sew for a permanent fit; use velcro if you need to remove the patch frequently.
- Check unit, employer, or local regulations before wearing on official uniforms.

FAQ

Q: What are the patch dimensions?

A: The patch measures 5.5 x 8 cm. It is sized for shoulder or chest placement on standard camouflage uniforms.

Q: How do I attach the patch to my uniform?

A: You can sew the patch directly onto fabric for a permanent fit or attach it with hook-and-loop (velcro) for easy removal. Both methods are commonly used on tactical gear.

Q: What materials is the patch made from?

A: The patch is embroidered on durable fabric with reinforced stitching. It is intended for long-term use in typical field or display conditions.

Q: Is the patch available in other sizes?

A: This patch is currently offered only in the 5.5 x 8 cm size. If other sizes become available, they will be listed on the product page.

Q: Can I buy more than one patch?

A: Yes, multiple units can be purchased while supplies last. Note that stock is limited, so availability can change quickly.

Q: Is this an official unit-issued item?

A: This is an embroidered patch representing the 216^ Compagnia Controcarri Val Natisone for collectors and uniform use. For questions about official issue or unit authorization, consult the unit or relevant authorities.
