Product overview

The Fascia Azzurra Savoia Principe di Piemonte is a ceremonial blue sash designed for collectors, historical uniform wearers, museums, and formal or police/duty displays. It suits anyone seeking an authentic-looking accessory tied to the Savoy tradition.

Definition: a 8.5 cm wide blue ceremonial sash, slightly shaped to fit the wearer and finished with silk-covered details and tassels.

Main features

Simple, historically inspired construction with silk detailing and an included presentation box.

- Width: 8.5 cm, corded transversely and slightly shaped to follow the body.
- Sliding ends: Two ends slide through a barrel-style loop covered in blue silk mesh for a neat finish and added protection.
- Tassels: Each end has a matching tassel; total tassel length 20 cm, including 14 cm of silk-cord fringe.
- Historic color: Traditional Savoy blue, historically associated with the House of Savoia and the Virgin Mary.
- Packaging: Supplied with the pictured presentation box for storage or gift use.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this sash with formal or historical uniforms, ceremonial dress, or as a museum/display piece. The sliding ends and shaped profile allow it to conform to different body sizes and styles of wear.

In most cases, wear it across the shoulder or around the waist depending on the required protocol or display setup. It is also suitable for collectors of military surplus, historical dress, and police or duty memorabilia.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the silk elements and fringe in good condition and preserves the sash for display or occasional use.

- Store in the included box away from direct sunlight and moisture.
- Spot clean gently; avoid machine washing or harsh chemicals due to silk components.
- Handle tassels and fringe carefully to prevent fraying.
- If unsure about cleaning, consult a textile or conservation specialist for delicate fabrics.
