Product overview

The Bustina Aeronautica Militare Truppa is a formal side cap designed for personnel of the Italian Aeronautica Militare and for collectors of military surplus and tactical gear. It combines a clean, professional look with practical features that suit duty wear, ceremonial use, and travel.

Definition: this is a foldable blue gabardine side cap with a metal Aeronautica Militare badge, intended for service and representative use.

Main features

Key design and material details that define the bustina and its performance.

- Blue gabardine fabric: durable and made for extended wear in operational conditions.
- Blue piping cord along the top edges for a neat, formal profile.
- Foldable and flattenable design for easy storage and transport.
- Semi-rigid larger sides to keep a structured fit while remaining comfortable.
- Slightly expandable top with a bellows-style detail for better fit and comfort.
- Metal Aeronautica Militare badge fixed to the front panel as a mark of affiliation.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the bustina as part of formal uniform dress, for duty appearances, or as a display item in a military collection. Its foldable design makes it convenient to pack in uniform kits or travel bags.

Quick answer: wear it as a formal side cap for service, ceremonies, or uniformed duties. In most cases, choose the appropriate size for a secure fit; the bustina is available in multiple sizes to suit different head measurements.

Care and notes

Simple care preserves the shape and finish of the gabardine and metal badge.

- Wipe clean with a damp cloth; use a mild detergent if needed.
- Avoid machine washing to protect fabric structure and the metal badge.
- Do not bleach; dry flat and reshape while damp to maintain form.
- Store flattened or in a protective cover to prevent creasing or damage.

FAQ

Q: Is the bustina available in different sizes?

A: Yes. The Bustina Aeronautica Militare Truppa is offered in multiple sizes to fit different head measurements. Select the size that matches your usual hat size for best fit.

Q: How should I clean the bustina?

A: Clean the cap with a damp cloth and mild detergent if necessary. Avoid machine washing to prevent damage to the fabric and metal badge.

Q: Can the bustina be personalized with a name or code?

A: No, personalization services are not available at this time. The bustina is sold in its standard issued appearance with the metal badge.

Q: What are the typical delivery times?

A: Delivery times depend on your location and the seller’s shipping options. Typical domestic delivery is usually a few business days; check the retailer for exact estimates.

Q: Is this item suitable for collectors?

A: Yes. The bustina is a high-quality, representative item for collectors of military surplus and Air Force memorabilia.

Q: Is the metal badge permanently attached?

A: The metal Aeronautica Militare badge is applied to the front panel as part of the cap’s construction and is intended to be a fixed emblem.

Tip: Choose the correct size variant and consider browsing related uniform and military surplus items from Tutto Militare to complete your set; storing the bustina flat will help keep its shape and finish.
