Product description:

Product overview

The Soggolo Generale Aeronautica Capo di Stato Maggiore is a ceremonial braided cord reserved for the General Aeronautica Capo di Stato Maggiore Difesa and authorized collectors. It is a uniform accessory that signals rank and office within the Italian Air Force.

Definition: a soggolo is a decorative braided cord worn on the uniform. This item is intended for duty wear by the named office or for collectors who hold the required prefectoral license.

Main features

Designed to meet formal dress requirements, this soggolo combines traditional styling with robust construction suitable for ceremonial and duty uniforms.

- High-quality materials: three-strand braided cord in gold-coloured fabric for durability.
- Elegant design: four rank galloons at temple level made from gold fabric edged in black.
- Restricted issue: reserved to the Generale Aeronautica Capo di Stato Maggiore Difesa and properly licensed collectors.
- Authentication required: sale is conditional on submission of official documentation (see below).
- Relevant for: ceremonial use, military duty dress, military surplus and tactical collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the soggolo on the uniform at the temple level as part of formal or ceremonial dress when authorized by rank and regulations. It is intended for official use by the specified office.

In most cases, purchase and delivery require verification of identity and service affiliation. Collectors may purchase only after submitting a prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS. This piece is appropriate for display, uniform wear where authorized, and military or tactical museum-type collections.

Care and notes

Maintain the soggolo by storing it dry and protected from abrasion; handle with care to preserve the braided cord and gold edging.

- Submit a copy of the military ID (tesserino militare) or prefectoral license as required.
- Delivery may be arranged to the service command address; the command location will be verified before purchase approval.
- Availability is limited and subject to authenticity checks and documentation verification.
- Product sales are subject to Italian regulations; international sale is restricted as described below.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Soggolo Generale Aeronautica Capo di Stato Maggiore?

A: Only the Generale Aeronautica Capo di Stato Maggiore Difesa and collectors with a valid prefectoral license (art. 28 TULPS) are permitted to purchase this item.

Q: What documents are required to complete a purchase?

A: You must send a copy of the military ID (tesserino militare) or, for collectors, a copy of the prefectoral license as required by law.

Q: How is buyer authenticity verified?

A: Verification is done by checking the submitted documents and confirming the buyer's command location if delivery will be made to a service address. Verification must be completed before purchase approval.

Q: Is this product available for international sale?

A: No. The product is reserved to Italian military personnel and collectors with an Italian prefectoral license; international sale is not provided.

Q: What are typical delivery times?

A: Delivery times vary depending on document verification and current stock. Expect additional processing time while authenticity is confirmed.

Q: Can collectors purchase this as a display piece?

A: Yes, collectors with the required prefectoral license can purchase the item for collection or display, subject to the same verification rules.

Tip: Choose the correct variant and delivery address (service command if applicable) when registering. Browse related ceremonial and military surplus items to complete a uniform or collection without rushing the verification process.
