The Sciabola Ufficiale Cavalleria is the official cavalry officer sabre of the Esercito, intended for serving army personnel and authorised civilians. It is a ceremonial military sabre designed for formal duty, parades and regulated wear.

Definition: the Sciabola Ufficiale Cavalleria is a regulated ceremonial sabre issued to members of the Esercito and to civilians holding the required prefectoral licence (art. 28 TULPS).

Main features

Crafted to the official pattern, this sabre combines traditional design with strict dimensional rules for correct wear and carry. Key details include:

- Guard with four branches, three of which are oblique and curved, for the characteristic cavalry profile.
- Grip without finger grooves for a clean, secure hold.
- Two decorative/structural bands positioned 7 cm and 20 cm from the scabbard opening.
- When sheathed and placed on the ground, the top of the grip sits approximately 15 cm below the waist.
- Designed to be worn on the left side with dragona (sword knot) and/or pendaglio (pendant), proportioned to the wearer’s height measured perpendicularly from the navel to the ground.
- Sales restricted: purchase requires advance verification of military service or a prefectoral licence; PayPal is not accepted for this item.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: the sabre is intended primarily for ceremonial and official duty use by Esercito officers and authorised civilian holders of the licence under art. 28 TULPS. Use it for formal events, honour guards and official displays where regulated dress is required.

In most cases, civilians may buy only after presenting the prefectoral licence and passing document verification; army personnel must submit a copy of military ID or service attestation and may request delivery to their barracks. This product also suits collectors and military surplus buyers who meet the legal requirements.
