Product overview

The Tubolari for Camicia Aspirante Guardiamarina Ruolo Commissario are a pair of blue cord braid sleeve tabs with a gold stripe, intended for personnel of the Marina Militare serving in the Aspirante Guardiamarina Ruolo Commissario role. This product is meant for use on official shirts and sweaters as part of the service uniform.

Definition: A tubolare is a stitched sleeve braid (pair) used to show rank and unit on a service shirt or sweater. Made from durable blue cord braid with a gold gallone, these tubolari combine professional appearance with duty-grade construction suitable for military and tactical use.

Main features

Designed for formal uniform use, these tubolari offer clear rank identification and a neat, long-lasting finish.

- Pair: Sold as a pair for left and right sleeves.
- Material: Blue cord braid (cordellino blu) for durability and a crisp look.
- Trim: Gold stripe (gallone dorato) matching Aspirante Guardiamarina Ruolo Commissario insignia.
- Fit: Suitable for shirt and sweater wear.
- Restricted sale: Available only to Marina Militare personnel.
- Production time: Approximately 7 days.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear the tubolari on the sleeves of the official shirt or sweater to display rank while on duty. They are intended for everyday uniform use and formal occasions.

In most cases, these tubolari are supplied to serving members of the Marina Militare and shipped to the service address for secure delivery. Collectors may purchase only with the required prefectoral license copy (ex art. 28 TULPS).

Care and notes

Maintain the braid’s appearance with gentle care and store flat to avoid creasing.

- Avoid harsh washing; spot clean or follow uniform care instructions.
- Store in a dry place to prevent discoloration of the gold stripe.
- Sale and shipment limited to the service address; collectors must provide the required license copy.
