Product overview

The Fregio Basco Reggimento San Marco is a hand-embroidered beret badge for members of the Reggimento San Marco and qualified amphibious personnel of the Marina Militare. It is intended for use on the unit beret and for verified military collections.

Definition: a hand-stitched gold-bullion badge on scarlet red cloth that identifies San Marco Regiment personnel. Collectors of military surplus, tactical gear, duty items and police equipment may also request this item with the required documentation.

Main features

Carefully made with traditional embroidery techniques and high-quality materials, this badge highlights the San Marco Regiment emblem and meets uniform appearance requirements.

- Hand-embroidered: stitched by hand using gold canutiglia (gold bullion) for a durable, detailed finish.
- Distinctive design: scarlet red field showing the Marina Militare trophy: double laurel branches (three leaves and two berries), a turreted crown and a central gold anchor.
- Central motif: oval shield edged with a cord border and an applied gold anchor at the center.
- High-quality materials: premium red cloth and gold bullion ensure long-lasting appearance and wear resistance.
- Restricted availability: supplied only to Marina Militare personnel and verified collectors with proper licensing.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this fregio attached to the official Reggimento San Marco beret as part of uniform dress or for display in a verified military collection. It is suited for ceremonial wear, formal duty use, or careful storage in a collector’s exhibit.

Quick answer: this badge is for San Marco Regiment personnel and licensed collectors only. In most cases, you must provide proof of service or the required prefectural license (ex art. 28 TULPS) when ordering or registering the shipping address.

Care and notes

Handle and store the badge carefully to preserve the gold bullion embroidery and cloth field. Follow these simple care points and respect the sale and shipping requirements.

- Avoid machine washing; clean spots gently with a soft cloth and mild detergent if needed.
- Store flat in a dry place to prevent crushing the bullion work or the cord border.
- Sale is restricted: provide a copy of your service ID or list your barracks as the delivery address during site registration.

- Collectors must supply a copy of the prefectural license ex art. 28 TULPS to complete the purchase.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Fregio Basco Reggimento San Marco?

A: The badge is reserved for Marina Militare personnel and for collectors who hold the required prefectural license (ex art. 28 TULPS). Verification is required before shipping.

Q: What documents are needed to order?

A: Active personnel must send a copy of their service ID or indicate their barracks as the shipping address during registration. Collectors must provide the prefectural license.

Q: How is the fregio made?

A: It is hand-embroidered in gold canutiglia on scarlet red cloth, with an applied gold anchor and cord-edged oval shield at the center.

Q: What does the badge depict?

A: The design shows the Marina Militare trophy: a double laurel branch (three leaves, two berries), a turreted crown and a central gold anchor on a scarlet background.

Q: Can I buy this fregio if I am not in the Navy?

A: No. Purchases are limited to Marina Militare personnel and licensed collectors; the seller requires proof of eligibility before completing the sale.

Q: Is the supply limited?

A: Yes. Because this is a reserved uniform item made with high-quality materials, availability is limited and subject to documentation verification.

Tip: Choose the correct variant (service or collector) and make sure your documentation is ready before checkout; also browse related tactical and military surplus items to complete uniform or collection displays.
