How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: worn by eligible recipients at official ceremonies, parades and formal events, or kept as a service memento. The medal represents long naval duty and can be displayed with other service awards.

In most cases, recipients will receive this medal through formal military channels rather than purchasing it. It is appropriate for collectors of military surplus history, ceremonial display, and for documenting personal service records.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves appearance and the ribbon: store in a dry place and handle with clean hands. Note that this is an officially conferred decoration and it is not sold as a standard retail product.

- Keep away from harsh chemicals; clean gently with a soft cloth.
- Store in a dry, padded box to protect the silver and ribbon from tarnish and wear.
- Size is fixed at 37 mm—no other sizes are available for this medal.
- Medal is officially issued to eligible service members; public purchase is not the normal channel.
