Product overview

The Medaglia Alluvione Piemonte 1994 is a commemorative medal issued by the Ministero degli Interni — Dipartimento della Polizia di Stato for police personnel who took part in rescue and relief operations during the November 1994 floods in Piemonte (Alessandria, Asti and Cuneo). It is intended for collectors, veterans, museums and family members who want a tangible remembrance of service and duty.

Definition: a bronzed police service medal awarded for participation in the Piemonte flood response of November 1994. This item is suitable for military surplus and police memorabilia collections, tactical display cabinets, and duty-history exhibits.

Main features

The medal follows the original official design and is offered in the single, original size. Key physical and identification details are listed below.

- Material: bronzed metal, original finish.
- Size: single format — 37 mm diameter (official design preserved).
- Obverse: geographic motif showing the affected provinces and inscription “Alluvione nelle province di Asti, Cuneo e Alessandria Novembre 1994”.
- Reverse: central inscription “Benemerenza” with circular legend “Ministero degli Interni Dipartimento della P.S. Polizia di Stato”.
- Ribbon: 37 mm red ribbon crossed by two white stripes symbolizing purity and sacrifice.
- Provenance: issued to Polizia di Stato personnel involved in the 1994 flood response; sold as original collectible items.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: this medal is primarily a collectible and commemorative piece for display, preservation in a collection, or as a keepsake for former service members and families. It is not a modern uniform accessory for active duty use.

In most cases, collectors display the medal in a frame, a presentation case, or a medal board alongside other police and military surplus items. Available through specialized memorabilia sellers such as Tutto Militare, the medal is useful for historical displays, museum exhibits, and private collections focused on police duty and regional disaster response.

Care and notes

Handle and store the medal carefully to preserve original patina and markings; avoid harsh cleaning that could remove historic finish.

- Keep dry and store in a padded case or display box to prevent scratches.
- Avoid abrasive polishes; gentle cleaning with a soft cloth is recommended.
- The medal is supplied in its original appearance and is not customizable.

- Minor signs of age or wear may be present on original items and are part of their historical value.
