How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use the medal as a commemorative item, display piece, or collector’s item. If you plan to wear it, confirm official uniform rules with your unit or organization first.

In most cases, recipients keep this medal in a presentation case, mounted in a shadow box, or included in a service record display. It is also useful for museums, military surplus dealers, and tactical or police memorabilia collections where historical mission items are shown.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the medal in good condition for display or storage:

- Store in a dry, cool place away from direct sunlight to protect the ribbon colors.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners and chemicals.
- Keep ribbon flat or lightly wrapped to prevent creasing; consider a protective case for long-term display.
