Product overview

The Panno Rosso Arma Carabinieri is a red cloth panel designed for members of the Arma dei Carabinieri to assemble and mount service ribbons on uniforms. Definition: a pre-cut fabric panel for composing ribbon bars and nastrini.

This 13 cm x 4 cm panel is sized for up to five ribbon positions and can be trimmed or combined to create longer ribbon bars. Suitable for duty, ceremonial and police uniform maintenance, it works well within military surplus and tactical kit workflows.

Main features

Key features that matter for uniform upkeep and ribbon assembly:

- Size: 13 cm x 4 cm, standard panel for ribbon assembly.
- High-quality fabric: durable material designed to hold shape and color.
- Washable and colorfast: retains color and structure after normal laundering.
- Customizable: easily cut to extend ribbon positions or create larger assemblies.
- Cost-effective: buy multiple panels to reduce the unit cost for larger ribbon sets.
- Easy to use: suitable for hand sewing or machine assembly.

How to use / When it’s useful

The Panno Rosso can be used at home or in a uniform repair area. Basic steps: prepare tools (fabric scissors, needle and thread or sewing machine), measure and cut to the required length, align ribbons, fix them to the panel, then mount the completed ribbon bar on the uniform.

Quick answer: it is intended for mounting up to five ribbon positions per 13 cm x 4 cm panel and can be extended by trimming or adding panels. In most cases, it is used for duty and ceremonial uniforms, quick repairs, or when creating custom ribbon combinations for police, tactical or military surplus use.

Care and notes

Basic care and handling tips to keep the panel looking professional and lasting longer:

- Use sharp fabric scissors for clean cuts and accurate edges.
- Sew or secure ribbons carefully to avoid damaging the fabric during assembly.
- Wash gently and avoid harsh bleaches to preserve color and fibers.
- Follow Arma dei Carabinieri uniform rules when assembling or displaying ribbons.

FAQ

Q: What are the exact dimensions of the Panno Rosso Arma Carabinieri?

A: The panel measures 13 cm x 4 cm, a size designed to accommodate up to five ribbon positions per unit.

Q: Is the fabric durable and washable?

A: Yes. The panel is made from quality fabric intended to retain color and shape under normal washing and regular use.

Q: Can I cut the panel to create longer or larger ribbon bars?

A: Yes. The fabric is easily trimmed to length. Order multiple panels if you need ribbon assemblies of 10, 15, 20 positions or more.

Q: Do I need sewing experience to use this product?

A: No. Basic hand-sewing or a simple sewing machine is sufficient. The panel is user-friendly for those with limited tailoring experience.

Q: How do I purchase the Panno Rosso Arma Carabinieri?

A: Select the required quantity from the product dropdown on our e-commerce page, add to cart, and proceed through the checkout with the available secure payment methods.

Q: How many ribbons can one panel support?

A: One 13 cm x 4 cm panel is sized for up to five ribbon positions; combine or cut panels to create larger ribbon assemblies as needed.

Tip: Choose the correct quantity and plan the total ribbon positions before ordering—select multiple panels for longer ribbon bars and browse related uniform repair items to complete your assembly kit.
