Product overview

The Fregio Basco Dragoni Cavalleria is a metal beret badge designed for members of the Italian Army’s Dragoni Cavalleria unit and for licensed military collectors. It is a distinctive emblem used to show unit affiliation and military tradition.

Definition: a metal beret badge featuring a grenade with a straight seven?tongued flame, sized for standard beret wear. Keywords: military, tactical, collector, military surplus.

Main features

Durable, regulation?style metal badge produced for authorised personnel and verified collectors.

- Distinctive design: grenade with a straight flame of seven tongues, symbolising strength and tradition.
- High?quality metal: built to last and keep a consistent appearance over time.
- Size: 5.5 cm diameter, suitable for beret placement and visible without excessive prominence.
- Restricted issue: reserved for Esercito (Army) personnel of the Dragoni Cavalleria.
- Authenticity controls: shipment only after identity verification and delivery to the unit’s barracks.
- Collector access: collectors must provide a copy of the prefectoral license (licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS).

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the badge to outfit the beret according to unit regulations or to complete an authorised military collection. It fits standard beret placements and is intended for duty or ceremonial wear by qualified personnel.

Quick answer: this fregio is for Dragoni Cavalleria service members and verified collectors only. In most cases, purchase and delivery require identity verification and/or a prefectoral license (art. 28 TULPS) for collectors.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the metal badge looking its best; follow authentication and delivery rules when ordering.

- Store dry and avoid prolonged exposure to moisture to reduce corrosion risk.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry or slightly damp cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or strong chemicals.
- Shipping requires identity verification and delivery to the barracks address for military staff.
- Collectors must send a copy of the licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS to confirm eligibility.
