How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it on the service uniform for formal events or include it on a ribbon bar with other decorations for display. The ribbon marks long service and is appropriate for retirement, promotion ceremonies, and official recognition events.

In most cases, officers purchase the ribbon after confirmation of entitlement (positive Commander review and administrative approval). Choose the finish and attachment that match the intended use—flat or Elite finish for ceremony, clamps or screws depending on mounting preference.
