Product overview

The Tubolarino EI (Esercito Italiano) for Generale di Divisione is a low-visibility plastic rank sleeve designed for use on the Italian Army vegetated camouflage uniform. It is intended for active military personnel who hold the rank of Generale di Divisione and for authorized collectors with the proper license.

Definition: The Tubolarino EI is a plastic insignia sleeve that displays the Generale di Divisione rank on vegetata camouflage while minimizing visual contrast. This tactical piece fits duty and field uniforms used by the Esercito Italiano.

Main features

Compact, durable and designed for low-visibility recognition, this tubolarino follows the visual cues required for higher officer ranks while remaining discreet on camouflage.

- Size: 7.2 cm height x 5.5 cm width — visible yet low-profile.
- Material: High-quality plastic built for field durability.
- Design: Five darkened five-point stars positioned above a low-visibility greca (decorative band) for rank identification.
- Compatibility: Made for the vegetata camouflage uniform of the Esercito Italiano.
- Low visibility: Colouring and layout reduce contrast to preserve camouflage and operational security.
- Sale restrictions: Purchase is restricted to active personnel or licensed collectors (see care and notes).

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the Tubolarino EI on the designated sleeve or placement area of the vegetata camouflage uniform to indicate the rank of Generale di Divisione while keeping a low visual profile. It is suitable for duty, tactical training, and field use where reduced visibility is required.

Quick answer: This item is for active Generale di Divisione officers and authorized collectors. In most cases, you will need to verify your status by providing proof of service or the required prefectoral license before purchase is approved.

Care and notes

Keep the tubolarino functional and compliant by following simple care steps and observing purchase rules.

- Wipe clean with a damp cloth; avoid strong solvents and excessive heat to preserve shape and finish.
- Purchase is limited to on-duty personnel after verification or collectors with a prefectoral license under article 28 of the TULPS.
- To verify eligibility, be prepared to provide a copy of your service ID or arrange delivery to your barracks address for confirmation.

- All sales and distribution follow site and military identification rules to protect rank integrity and operational security.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Tubolarino EI for Generale di Divisione?

A: Only active military personnel holding the appropriate rank and authorized collectors with a prefectoral license (article 28 TULPS) can purchase this item after verification.

Q: What documents are required to complete the purchase?

A: A copy of your service ID or an official attestation of service is required. Collectors must present the prefectoral license that complies with article 28 TULPS.

Q: How do I send verification documents?

A: Follow the seller's verification procedure: submit the requested document for review or use a barracks delivery address so eligibility can be confirmed before the account purchase filter is removed.

Q: What are the exact dimensions of the tubolarino?

A: The tubolarino measures 7.2 cm in height and 5.5 cm in width, designed for clear but discreet visibility on the uniform.

Q: Can I buy the tubolarino without authorization?

A: No. Sales are controlled to ensure only authorized personnel or properly licensed collectors can acquire rank insignia, in line with security and identification rules.

Q: What is the purpose of the greca and the darkened stars?

A: The greca (decorative band) and darkened five-point stars visually represent the Generale di Divisione rank in a subdued way, keeping the insignia recognizable without compromising camouflage.

Tip: When ordering, pick the correct variant that matches your uniform placement and rank; check verification requirements in advance and browse related tactical and military surplus items to complete your uniform responsibly.
