Product overview

The Camiciotto SEB Sailor Marina Militare is a short-sleeve service tunic designed for personnel who wear the Italian Navy White Summer Service uniform and for users seeking a high-quality, tailored service garment. It is made to combine a neat, service-style appearance with practical features for duty, ceremonial use, or display.

Definition: the SEB Sailor camiciotto is a tailored nautical-style service tunic with an open collar and reinforced back, supplied made to measure. Keywords: tactical, military surplus, duty wear.

Main features

Key practical and design elements of the Camiciotto SEB Sailor Marina Militare include:

- Open collar with overlapping left flap: triangular comb sewn on one side and fastened with a snap button on the other for a tidy closure.
- Short sleeves and reinforced back: extra strength in the dorsal area for daily wear and durability.
- Front storage: two horizontal pockets on the front and a single central horizontal buttonhole for the closure button.
- Epaulette support: two shoulder loops (guala) for the passage of the epaulette tongue.
- Made to measure: supplied custom-made after providing usual size, chest width and shoulder width; production time 15 days.
- Collar details: metal stars are to be applied on the collar reverses (stars not included and applied separately).

How to use / When it’s useful

This camiciotto is intended as part of the Uniforme di Servizio Estiva Bianca and works well for service duties, ceremonial duties, or as a tailored uniform-style garment for collectors. It offers a balance of formal appearance and practical features for duty, tactical display, or military surplus collections.

Quick answer: yes — it is designed for the White Summer Service uniform and for those who need a tailored service tunic. In most cases, order early and provide accurate measurements because the item is made to measure and requires a 15-day production period.

Care and notes

Simple care and ordering notes to ensure correct fit and long service life:

- Provide accurate measurements (usual size, chest width and shoulder width) at order to ensure the made-to-measure fit.
- Allow 15 days for production from the order date before delivery.
- Metal collar stars are not included and must be applied separately.
- Because this item is custom-made, check measurements carefully; contact customer service for assistance with sizing or issues.

FAQ

Q: How long does delivery take?

A: The camiciotto is made to measure and is produced within 15 days from the order, provided correct measurements are given. Shipping time after production depends on the chosen delivery method.

Q: How do I provide my measurements?

A: Provide your usual size plus chest width and shoulder width when placing the order. If you need help, contact customer service for guidance before completing the purchase.

Q: Is the camiciotto suitable for daily use?

A: Yes. The tunic includes a reinforced dorsal area and is designed for regular wear, making it suitable for routine duty and frequent use.

Q: Are the metal stars included on the collar?

A: No. The metal stars must be applied separately to the collar reverses; they are not supplied with the camiciotto.

Q: Can I return the camiciotto if it does not fit?

A: As a made-to-measure product, returns may be limited. Verify measurements carefully before ordering and contact customer service if you have issues after delivery.

Q: Is this item an official uniform piece?

A: The description states that the camiciotto is part of the Uniforme di Servizio Estiva Bianca della Marina Militare; it is presented as a tailored service tunic for that uniform style.

Tip: Choose the correct size and provide accurate chest and shoulder measurements to ensure the best fit; consider browsing related duty and military-style garments to complete your uniform or collection.
