Product overview

The Brevetto Metallo Aquila Pilota Militare is a gold-tone metal pilot badge made for personnel of the Aeronautica Militare and authorized collectors. It is a formal insignia representing a pilot’s qualification, intended for wear on the pilot’s uniform as an emblem of service and skill.

Definition: a gold-tone metal pilot brevet featuring a crowned eagle motif, sized to be a visible emblem on military dress. Suitable for military, tactical, and military surplus collectors and duty display items for authorized owners.

Main features

Well-crafted, symbolic metal badge designed to match military uniform standards and visual tradition.

- Dimensions: 7.2 x 2.2 cm.
- Material: gold-tone metal with finely worked eagle and turreted crown details.
- Distinctive design: crowned eagle with outstretched wings symbolizing authority and leadership.
- Intended for Aeronautica Militare personnel; also available to authorized collectors under legal provisions.
- Compact size to serve as a visible, elegant element on dress uniforms or display mounts.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it on the pilot uniform where brevet insignia are normally placed, or keep it as a display piece for a collection. For uniform placement follow your unit’s dress regulations or consult your personnel office for exact positioning.

In most cases, the badge is used as a formal uniform brevet for active or former pilots of the Aeronautica Militare and as a collectible item for licensed collectors. It also serves well for display in military surplus or tactical collections when ownership and documentation are verified.

Care and notes

Handle with care to preserve the metal finish and fine details; store in a dry, protected place when not worn.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Store away from moisture to prevent tarnishing of the gold-tone surface.
- Sale is restricted: only Aeronautica Militare personnel and authorized collectors with a prefectoral license (ex art. 28 TULPS) may purchase.
- Purchase requires verification of service membership or presentation of the required license.
