Product overview

The Fregio Maschile Dragoni su Robbio is a handcrafted uniform badge intended for members, collectors, and enthusiasts of the Cavalleria, specialty Dragoni. It is designed to complete the male berretto (cap) of the ordinary Cavalleria uniform with a traditional emblem.

Definition: a hand-embroidered Dragoni badge in gold canutiglia on robbio cloth, sized for the male service cap.

Main features

Quality materials and careful craftsmanship create a durable, historically accurate badge for uniform use, collections, or military surplus and tactical displays.

- Hand-embroidered: Made by artisans using traditional techniques.
- Gold canutiglia: Metallic thread gives a formal, historic look.
- Robbio cloth: The badge is mounted on authentic robbio fabric for correct appearance.
- Distinct design: Features the dragona with the regiment number holder at the center of the bomb.
- Size: 3.5 cm width × 9 cm height — made to fit the male berretto.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this fregio to outfit the male berretto of the Cavalleria ordinary uniform, specialty Dragoni. It is also suitable for collectors, military surplus displays, and duty or tactical presentations where authentic insignia are required.

Quick answer: It is specifically sized and styled for the male Cavalleria berretto, Dragoni specialty. In most cases, you should verify compatibility with your cap and ordering options before purchase.

Care and notes

Because the badge is handcrafted and uses metallic thread, handle and store it carefully to preserve detail and finish.

- Handle gently to avoid bending or fraying the metallic embroidery.
- Avoid machine washing or abrasive cleaning; spot clean only when necessary.
- Limited quantities due to artisanal production—check availability when ordering.
- Delivery times may vary because each piece is made by hand.
