Product overview

The Bracciale Azzurro per Sottufficiale is a blue identification armband designed for non-commissioned officers, sentries and field officials who need quick role recognition in operational and ceremonial settings. It suits tactical, military surplus and duty gear users, including police personnel who require visible role markers.

Definition: a durable blue armband with a rear Velcro closure worn on the left forearm for clear role identification. Limited stock and steady demand among military professionals make timely purchase advisable.

Main features

Built for field use and formal display, this armband combines durability, adjustability and a low-profile fit for active duty or ceremonies.

- High-quality materials: designed for durability and regular use.
- Dimensions: maximum length 42 cm, height 9 cm (fits the left forearm).
- Rear Velcro closure: allows quick adjustment and a secure fit.
- Distinctive blue color: easily visible for role identification on the field and in snowy terrain.
- Lightweight, ergonomic design: low profile that does not restrict movement.
- Suitable for ceremonies: clean appearance appropriate for formal military events.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the armband on the left forearm and secure with the rear Velcro for clear, immediate role identification. In most cases, it is used by NCOs, sentries, activators and field judges where visible role markers are required.

For field use, fit the armband snugly but comfortably so it stays in place during movement. For ceremonies, ensure the armband is clean and positioned neatly on the left forearm for a formal appearance.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the armband functional and visually distinct over time.

- Clean with mild soap and water; air dry. Avoid bleach or harsh chemicals.
- Fasten Velcro when storing to prevent snagging and to maintain closure strength.
- Check fit and Velcro integrity before deployment to ensure secure wear.
- Store flat or rolled loosely to avoid creases that affect appearance.

FAQ

Q: What are the exact dimensions of the armband?

A: The armband measures up to 42 cm in length and 9 cm in height, designed to fit the left forearm comfortably.

Q: Is the armband adjustable?

A: Yes. The rear Velcro closure permits personalized adjustment for a secure fit on different arm sizes.

Q: Will the blue color fade quickly?

A: The materials are selected for regular use; normal wear may affect appearance over long periods, so follow care instructions to preserve color.

Q: Can I wear this armband at formal military ceremonies?

A: Yes. The design and distinctive blue make it suitable for both operational use and formal events when positioned neatly on the left forearm.

Q: Is this item available for bulk purchase?

A: Availability is limited and demand is steady. For larger orders, contact the supplier or sales channel to confirm stock and lead times.

Q: Who typically wears this armband in the field?

A: It is commonly used by non-commissioned officers, sentries (picchetti), activators and field judges, especially where quick visual role recognition is needed.
