Product overview

The Fregio Basco Nuclei Militari di Protezione is a silver-toned metal beret badge representing the Nuclei Militari di Protezione, part of the 2° Reggimento San Marco of the Italian Navy. It is aimed at service members, collectors, and enthusiasts of military surplus, tactical and duty insignia who want an accurate emblem with historical significance.

Definition: This is a 4.6 cm silver metal beret badge featuring an anchor above two crossed rifles and a turreted crown with two small anchors.

Main features

Built to reflect the original unit emblem, this badge balances detailed design and durable materials for display or wear on appropriate headgear.

- Material: Silver-toned metal for a refined appearance and lasting finish.
- Iconic design: Anchor above two crossed rifles, topped by a turreted crown with two small anchors—symbols linked to the fucilieri della Marina.
- Size: Diameter 4.6 cm, sized for beret placement.
- Intended use: Designed for beret wear and for collectors of military, tactical, and police memorabilia.
- Availability: Produced in limited quantities and not always easy to find.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: The badge is designed to be worn on a beret and to serve as a display piece for collections or ceremonial use. Check your beret’s fitting and attachment method before mounting to ensure a correct fit.

In most cases, this fregio is used for ceremonial dress, historical displays, or as part of a military surplus collection. If you plan to wear it in uniformed service, confirm unit regulations and approval first.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the badge looking its best; follow these basic guidelines and confirm any wear rules with your unit or organization.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or chemicals.
- Store in a dry place to limit tarnishing and scratches.
- Confirm unit or organizational rules before using on official uniforms.

FAQ

Q: What are the badge dimensions?

A: The badge measures 4.6 cm in diameter. This size is intended for standard beret placement and display.

Q: What material is the fregio made from?

A: It is made of silver-toned metal, chosen for durability and a refined finish suitable for display and wear.

Q: Can I wear this on a beret?

A: Yes—this fregio is designed for beret use. Verify your beret's attachment system and any service regulations before mounting.

Q: What do the symbols represent?

A: The anchor above two crossed rifles and the turreted crown with two anchors identify the fucilieri della Marina and the Nuclei Militari di Protezione within the 2° Reggimento San Marco.

Q: Is this badge easy to find?

A: No, production is limited and demand among collectors and service members can make it harder to source at times.

Q: How can I purchase this fregio?

A: Add the item to your cart on the product page to secure one while stocks last. Check variant or size options if offered before checkout.

Tip: Choose the correct size and verify attachment compatibility with your beret before buying. Also consider browsing related military surplus and tactical insignia items to complete a display or collection.
