Product overview

The GUS cordelline for Agenti e Assistenti of the Polizia di Stato are braided shoulder cords designed for police duty and ceremonial wear. Definition: a cordellina is a braided shoulder cord worn on the right shoulder and chest of the uniform by Agenti and Assistenti of the Polizia di Stato.

These duty cords combine a refined appearance with durable construction for everyday uniform use. They suit police, tactical, and military surplus collections where correct uniform accessories are required.

Main features

Simple, sturdy construction with the official color and metal fittings.

- Unique braid: single cord forming two braids with a plain hanging section (pendaglio).
- Twisted midsection: cord twisted three turns at mid-length as specified for the model.
- Durable build: made from high-quality, long-lasting cord to keep a neat appearance.
- Official color: cremisi (crimson) for Agenti and Assistenti of the Polizia di Stato.
- Metal tips: two conical metal tips with ghiera at the ends for strength and a formal look.
- Uniform fit: designed to attach to the button under the right epaulette and the first jacket button.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: pass the cordellina around the right armhole and across the right chest; hook one end under the right epaulette button and button the other to the first jacket button. In most cases, this placement matches standard uniform regulations for Agenti and Assistenti della Polizia di Stato.

Use the cordellina for daily duty wear, formal inspections, and ceremonial occasions where correct uniform presentation is required. Its design keeps the cord stable while maintaining a professional, duty-ready appearance.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves appearance and function over time.

- Store dry and avoid prolonged exposure to moisture to protect the metal tips.
- Inspect attachment points and buttons before use to prevent loss during duty.
- Avoid sharp pulls or catches that could fray the cord.
- Color: currently supplied only in cremisi for Agenti and Assistenti roles.
