Product overview

These Mostrine Ufficiale Medico Alpini are a pair of enameled metal shoulder insignia for members of the Corpo degli Alpini, collectors, and anyone interested in military tradition. They show the medical symbol used by Alpini medical officers and suit uniforms, displays, or tactical and military surplus collections.

Definition: a pair of rectangular enameled metal insignia (25 x 50 mm) with a rear clamp fastening, intended to identify medical staff of the Alpini.

Main features

Clear, durable insignia designed to reproduce the traditional Alpini medical emblem while remaining practical for wear and display.

- Authentic design: rectangular on a green background with a single-point maroon flame and a gold-colored medical emblem.
- Medical symbol: the Rod of Asclepius (a snake entwined around a staff) in golden metal.
- High-quality material: enameled metal for long-lasting finish and resistance to regular use.
- Secure attachment: rear clamp fastening for a stable hold without sewing.
- Compact size: 25 x 50 mm — visible but not bulky on uniforms or display boards.
- Pair: sold as a set of two matching insignia.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: attach the insignia using the rear clamp to the designated position on the uniform or mount them for collection and display. They work well for Alpini personnel, reenactors, museums, and military surplus sellers.

In most cases, the clamp provides a secure fit and allows easy removal without sewing; use caution when applying to delicate fabrics. These insignia are also practical for duty gear, tactical displays, and police or military surplus collections.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the enamel and metal looking good and preserves the clamp mechanism for regular use.

- Wipe with a soft, dry cloth to remove dust and fingerprints.
- Avoid strong solvents or abrasive cleaners that can damage enamel or paint.
- Do not force the clamp on very thin or fragile fabrics to prevent damage.
- Stored in a dry place to reduce the chance of metal tarnish.

FAQ

Q: What are the dimensions of the insignia?

A: Each insignia measures 25 x 50 mm. They are designed to be visible on uniforms without being oversized.

Q: How are the insignia attached to the uniform?

A: They use a rear clamp fastening that grips the fabric. The clamp allows secure placement and easy removal without sewing.

Q: What material are the Mostrine Ufficiale Medico Alpini made of?

A: The insignia are made of enameled metal, combining a durable painted finish with a metal base for strength.

Q: What does the medical symbol represent?

A: The symbol is the Rod of Asclepius: a snake entwined around a staff, traditionally used to represent medical services.

Q: Are there other sizes or colors available?

A: These are offered in the specified size and color scheme (green background, maroon flame, gold emblem) to maintain the traditional Alpini appearance.

Q: Are these insignia suitable for collectors as well as active personnel?

A: Yes. They are suitable for active Alpini personnel, collectors, reenactors, and anyone maintaining a tactical or military surplus collection.

Tip: Choose the correct placement and check the clamp fit on your uniform fabric before regular use; consider browsing related Alpini insignia and military surplus items to complete a display or uniform set.
