Quick answer: attach the badge to the beret using the rear piccaglia fastener so the emblem sits centered and stable on the front of the beret. Ensure the pin is fully secured through the beret fabric.

In most cases, this fregio is used on service berets or as a replacement badge for medical officers, collectors, and display uniforms. It is also useful for tactical kit displays and military surplus inventory where authentic-looking insignia are required.

Basic care extends the badge’s appearance and fastening reliability—keep it clean and check the attachment before wearing.
