- Reverse details: "Repubblica Italiana" with a five-point star inside a cog wheel, encircled by an oak and a laurel branch; space for engraving name, place and date.
- Ribbon: Blue ribbon with two red edge stripes — one 3 mm and one 1 mm.
- Format: Available only in the ordinary uniform format for official wear.
- Availability: Produced in limited quantities and in high demand.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it on the ordinary uniform for official ceremonies and formal occasions, or include it in a framed display for presentation and preservation. In most cases, recipients and their families will use it for ceremonial wear or as a collectible item.

The medal is suitable for award ceremonies, commemorations and museum exhibits. If you plan to have the recipient details added, the reverse can be engraved with the name, place and date of the event.

Care and notes

Keep the medal clean and stored away from moisture and direct sunlight to preserve the finish and ribbon. Follow official regulations for wearing decorations on uniform when applicable.

- Do not bend or fold the ribbon; store flat or in a display case.
- Engraving: name, place and date can be added on the reverse as described.
- Available only in ordinary uniform size—confirm this is the correct format before purchase.
- Limited stock: order promptly if you need one for a ceremony or display.
