Product overview

The Fregio Regio Esercito Generale di Corpo d'Armata is a hand-embroidered regimental badge intended for the rank of Generale di Corpo d'Armata of the Regio Esercito, suitable for uniform display and military collections. Definition: a traditional, gold-bullion embroidered badge on scarlet red cloth representing historic Italian military insignia.

This badge is aimed at collectors, military history enthusiasts, restorers, and those seeking authentic-style insignia for display or ceremonial use. It pairs well with military surplus displays, tactical or duty memorabilia, and uniform restoration projects.

Main features

Carefully made to traditional standards, this badge emphasizes craftsmanship and historical design.

- Hand-embroidered: Produced using gold canutiglia (gold bullion) embroidery techniques.
- High-quality materials: Scarleet red cloth base with durable gold bullion thread.
- Historic design: Spread-winged eagle topped by the royal crown with the Savoy shield at the center.
- Official rank use: Intended for Generale di Corpo d'Armata of the Regio Esercito.
- Compact size: 6.3 cm width x 8 cm height — suitable for uniforms and display boards.
- Made to order: Produced in limited quantities to preserve quality and workmanship.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: attach the badge to a uniform, a display case, or a collector’s board to show rank and historic detail. In most cases, it is used for authentic uniform presentation, museum displays, or private collections.

The badge works well for restoring period uniforms or completing a formal display of military surplus and tactical memorabilia. Use a secure stitch or mounting method appropriate for delicate, hand-embroidered items to preserve the embroidery.

Care and notes

Handle the badge with care to protect the gold embroidery and the scarlet cloth backing.

- Avoid machine washing; spot clean gently with a soft cloth.
- Store flat and away from direct sunlight to prevent fading and tarnish.
- Handle edges minimally to avoid loosening the bullion thread.
- Made to order and limited availability — orders may require lead time.
