Product overview

The Cappellino Ranger Vegetato is a military-style cap in Italian Vegetato camouflage designed for outdoor enthusiasts, tactical users, collectors and anyone who needs a durable everyday hat. Definition: a lightweight cap made from 100% cotton rip-stop with a semi-rigid visor, an internal pocket and a rear Velcro adjustment.

Built for comfort and long wear, this cap combines breathable cotton rip-stop fabric with a protective visor and a discreet internal pocket for small valuables. Its Vegetato pattern matches Italian Army-inspired camouflage for an authentic military look.

Main features

Key features at a glance:

- Material: 100% cotton rip-stop — tear-resistant and breathable.
- Camouflage: Vegetato Italian Army pattern for authentic military styling.
- Visor: Semi-rigid brim that shields from sun and light rain.
- Internal pocket: Discreet compartment inside the crown for keys, coins or an ID.
- Adjustment: Rear Velcro strap for one-size-fits-most convenience.
- Use cases: Suitable for tactical, military surplus, outdoor and casual duty wear.

How to use / When it’s useful

The Ranger Vegetato cap is useful for hiking, camping, field training, urban patrol simulations and everyday outdoor activities. Wear it whenever you need sun protection, a low-profile camo look or a small secure pocket for essentials.

Quick answer: Yes — this cap works well for outdoor, tactical and everyday use.
In most cases, the rear Velcro adjusts to fit a wide range of head sizes and the internal pocket holds small valuables securely while you move.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the cap functional and looking its best. Follow these basic guidelines:

- Machine wash gentle or hand wash in cold water to reduce shrinking.
- Close the Velcro before washing to protect the fabric and fastener.
- Do not bleach; reshape the visor while damp and air dry.
- Designed for sun and light rain protection; not guaranteed waterproof in heavy rain.

FAQ

Q: What size is the Ranger Vegetato cap?

A: It is one size with a rear Velcro adjustment designed to fit most head sizes comfortably.

Q: What material is the cap made from?

A: The cap is made from 100% cotton rip-stop, a lightweight fabric with reinforced threads to reduce tearing.

Q: Is the visor rigid?

A: The visor is semi-rigid, offering sun and light rain protection without being overly stiff or heavy.

Q: What can I store in the internal pocket?

A: The discreet inner pocket fits small items like coins, keys, a folded ID or other small valuables.

Q: Is this cap official military issue?

A: The design uses Vegetato camouflage inspired by the Italian Army, but the cap is a commercial product and not presented as official issue.

Q: Can I use this for police or duty work?

A: It is suitable for tactical-style and outdoor duty activities, but check your organization’s uniform rules before using it on official duty.

Tip: Choose the cap if you want a durable, breathable hat with an authentic Vegetato look; check the Velcro adjustment for fit and browse related tactical and military surplus headwear to match your kit.
