Product overview

The French Parachutist Metal Badge is a silvered metal insignia for collectors, military history enthusiasts, and tactical or military surplus retailers. It reproduces the traditional parachutist wings and parachute motif and can be worn or displayed.

Definition: A metal badge depicting stylized wings, a parachute and laurel fronds, designed for display or wear by collectors and reenactors.

Main features

Key details at a glance — practical size, durable materials, and symbolic design suitable for display, collection, or uniform-style use.

- Distinctive design: Stylized wings framed by two laurel fronds, topped by a central parachute whose cords meet at a star above the wings.
- Material: Silvered metal with gold-tone laurel fronds for contrast and visual detail.
- Size: 73 mm width x 45 mm height — visible without being bulky.
- Durability: Metal construction made for long-term display or occasional wear.
- Collector appeal: Suitable for military surplus collections, tactical displays, or historical exhibits.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear it on jackets or display it in a frame, shadow box, or on a collector’s board. The badge works well for reenactments, historical exhibits, or as part of a tactical or duty gear display.

In most cases, collectors use this badge for display or light wear rather than daily duty use. It adds historical character to military surplus collections, police or tactical displays, and personal memorabilia.

Care and notes

Care is straightforward to preserve finish and detail; store in a dry place and avoid harsh chemicals.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth to remove dust and fingerprints.
- Avoid abrasive cleaners or prolonged exposure to moisture to protect the silvered finish and gold-tone laurel.
- Store in a padded box or display case to prevent scratches.
- Note: This item is offered as a collectible badge/insignia for display or wear and is not presented as an official issued service decoration.
