Product overview

The Soggolo Generale di Divisione is a ceremonial rank cord reserved for senior officers of the Arma dei Carabinieri, Esercito and Guardia di Finanza. It is intended for qualified military personnel and licensed collectors who meet the purchase requirements.

Definition: the Soggolo Generale di Divisione is a three-strand silver fabric cord with two silver rank braids edged in black, positioned at the temples as a sign of rank and authority. Suitable for military, duty and police ceremonial use and for military surplus collectors.

Main features

Classic, durable construction and clear rank identification make this soggolo an official-looking, high-quality accessory for formal uniforms and ceremonial duties.

- Three-strand silver cord: braided cord in silver-coloured fabric for a traditional appearance.
- Two rank braids: silver ribbon galloons edged in black, placed at temple level for clear identification.
- Durable material: fabric chosen for lasting appearance and wear resistance.
- Official use: reserved for personnel of Arma dei Carabinieri, Esercito and Guardia di Finanza.
- Purchase verification: sale requires identity or service verification to ensure authorized ownership.
- Limited availability: produced and sold in restricted quantities to maintain proper distribution.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the soggolo with the designated dress uniform for formal ceremonies, parades, inspections and other official events where rank insignia are displayed. It is positioned at the temple area as described by service regulations.

In most cases, active-duty personnel must provide a copy of their military ID or use their command’s address during registration to complete verification before purchase. Collectors may buy only after presenting the required prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS.

Care and notes

Simple care preserves the cord’s appearance and ensures compliance with purchase rules.

- Store dry and flat to avoid crushing the braid; keep away from direct sunlight.
- Spot clean gently with a soft cloth; avoid harsh chemicals that could damage the fabric finish.
- Sale is restricted: you must provide a military ID or verified command address before purchase is approved.
- Collectors: present the prefectoral license required by art. 28 TULPS to complete the purchase.
- Do not use or display this insignia if you are not authorized to wear it under service rules.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Soggolo Generale di Divisione?

A: Only personnel of the Arma dei Carabinieri, Esercito and Guardia di Finanza may purchase it after verification of service membership or command address.

Q: What materials make up the soggolo?

A: It is made from a three-strand silver-coloured fabric cord with two silver ribbon galloons edged in black, positioned at the temples for rank identification.

Q: Can collectors buy this item?

A: Yes. Collectors must present the prefectoral license required by art. 28 TULPS to confirm legal possession before the sale proceeds.

Q: How do I prove my eligibility to purchase?

A: Provide a copy of your military ID showing membership in the relevant Corps, or register using your command’s address for shipment so we can verify your posting.

Q: Is the soggolo always in stock?

A: No. The item is produced and sold in limited quantities and is in high demand, so availability can be restricted.

Q: Are there care instructions to maintain the soggolo?

A: Store it flat and dry, avoid direct sunlight, and clean only by gentle spot cleaning; do not use aggressive chemicals that may harm the fabric finish.

Tip: Choose the correct variant and verify eligibility before checkout; browse related ceremonial and military surplus accessories to complete your uniform or collection without delay.
