How to use / When it’s useful

These badges are worn on Alpine Troops uniforms or displayed by licensed collectors. Attach each badge using the rear clamp to the designated uniform area to ensure correct placement and stability.

Quick answer: Worn by Truppe Alpine personnel and available to collectors with the correct authorization. In most cases, purchase requires sending a copy of your military ID or the prefectural license and may be shipped directly to the military command.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the enamel and metal star in good condition; handle with care when attaching or removing. Shipping and sale are subject to identification checks as described below.

- Store in a dry place to protect enamel and metal finishes.
- Do not use abrasive cleaners; wipe gently with a soft cloth.
- Sale reserved to Italian Army personnel or verified collectors with licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS.
- Shipment only after ID verification or delivery to the relevant Command as required.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Mostrine Alpini Truppe Alpine?

A: These badges are reserved for personnel of the Italian Army's Truppe Alpine and for collectors who can provide the required prefectural license (licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS). Identification is verified before shipping.

Q: What are the dimensions of each badge?

A: Each badge measures 25 x 50 mm and is sold as a pair, suitable for standard uniform placement.

Q: How are the badges fastened to clothing?

A: They use a clamp-style rear attachment that holds securely on uniform fabric when fitted correctly.

Q: What materials are used in the badges?

A: The badges are enamelled in green with a silvered five-point metal star applied to the front. Materials are chosen for durability and appearance.

Q: How does shipping and verification work?

A: Shipping proceeds only after you send a copy of the military ID or, for collectors, the prefectural license. Alternatively, items can be shipped directly to the relevant military Command.

Q: Are these items suitable for collectors?

A: Yes, verified collectors with the required licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS may purchase them. Availability can be limited due to restricted distribution.

Tip: Choose the correct pair for your uniform or collection and prepare the necessary ID or license before ordering; browse related military and tactical insignia to complete your set.
