Product overview

The Distinctive EUPOL Kinshasa Congo badge is a commemorative, silver-plated enameled metal pin for personnel, veterans, and collectors of military and police items. It suits those who want a wearable or display piece linked to the EUPOL mission in Kinshasa.

Definition: A 2.4 cm diameter commemorative mission badge made of silver-plated enameled metal. This item is aimed at collectors, tactical and military surplus enthusiasts, and those interested in police or duty memorabilia.

Main features

Simple, durable design with clear mission identification—suitable as a collectible or display item.

- Distinctive design: Round badge with a blue background showing the Congo area, surrounded by stars and labeled "EUPOL" above and "Kinshasa Congo" below.
- High-quality materials: Silver-plated metal with enamel finish for lasting appearance.
- Compact size: Diameter 2.4 cm — discreet to wear, visible when displayed.
- Collectible value: Commemorates the EUPOL mission in Kinshasa and appeals to military, police, and tactical collectors.
- Limited availability: Produced in small quantities, making it a sought-after piece for collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear it on a jacket lapel, cap, or display it in a collection case as a commemorative badge. It works well as a keepsake for mission participants or as a display piece for collectors of military surplus and police memorabilia.

In most cases, collectors and former mission staff choose it as a memento or gift. Use it for display, framing, or on a duty-style board alongside other badges and patches to create a focused collection.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves the enamel and plating; treat it as a small decorative metal item rather than an official credential.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or chemicals.
- Store in a dry place away from prolonged moisture to prevent tarnish.
- Not an official identification or authorization—decorative and commemorative only.
- Small size: keep away from small children to avoid choking risk.

FAQ

Q: What is the badge diameter?

A: The badge measures 2.4 cm in diameter. It is compact and suitable for lapels, caps, or display cases.

Q: What material is the badge made of?

A: The badge is silver-plated metal with an enameled finish, designed for durability and a polished look.

Q: Is this an official EUPOL identification item?

A: No. This is a commemorative badge for collectors and participants; it is not an official form of identification or authorization for duty.

Q: Is the badge suitable for collectors?

A: Yes. Its mission-specific design and limited production make it appealing to collectors of military surplus, tactical gear, and police memorabilia.

Q: Can this badge be given as a gift?

A: Yes. It is a meaningful gift for someone who served on or is interested in the EUPOL mission in Kinshasa or in contemporary mission history.

Q: How is the badge attached or fastened?

A: Attachment style can vary; check the product photos or item details on the listing for the exact fastening type used on this badge.

Tip: Confirm the 2.4 cm size before purchasing and consider browsing related tactical, military surplus, and police badge items to build a coordinated collection or find a matching display option.
