Product overview

The Althea Eufor Badge is a silver enamelled metal commemorative badge for collectors, veterans, and anyone interested in military surplus, tactical gear, or police duty memorabilia. Definition: the Distintivo Althea Eufor is a 2.4 cm silver-coloured enamelled metal badge featuring a laurel and oak wreath and a depiction of Bosnia for the Eufor Althea mission.

This badge serves as a small symbol of service and recognition tied to the Eufor Althea mission and is suitable for display, wear on a lapel or gear, or adding to a military or police collection.

Main features

Key features and benefits at a glance:

- Elegant finish: Silver-coloured enamelled metal for a professional appearance.
- Strong symbolism: Laurel and oak wreaths represent victory and strength; the Bosnia map references the Eufor Althea mission.
- Compact size: 2.4 cm diameter—easy to wear or display.
- Durable build: Made with quality materials for long-term display or light wear.
- Collectible value: Appealing to collectors of military surplus, tactical items, and police/duty memorabilia.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it as a commemorative lapel badge or place it in a display case with other military surplus or tactical memorabilia. It works well as a personal memento, reunion keepsake, or collector’s item.

In most cases, former participants, collectors, and history enthusiasts buy this badge to mark service or to add to a police/duty or military-themed collection. It is compact enough for jackets, caps, bags, or display mounts.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the badge looking its best; store it in a dry place and handle gently to avoid scratches.

- Wipe gently with a soft, dry cloth to remove fingerprints and dust.
- Avoid harsh chemicals or abrasive cleaners that could damage the enamel or finish.
- Store in a dry, cool place to limit tarnishing or moisture damage.
- Keep away from children—small size may pose a choking hazard.

FAQ

Q: What are the badge dimensions?

A: The Distintivo Althea Eufor measures 2.4 cm in diameter. Its compact size is designed for lapel wear or display.

Q: What material is the badge made of?

A: The badge is made of silver-coloured metal with enamel. The finish is intended for a polished, professional look.

Q: What do the laurel and oak wreaths mean?

A: The laurel frond traditionally represents victory, while the oak frond symbolizes strength. The Bosnia map references the Eufor Althea mission.

Q: Is this an official issued badge for service wear?

A: This badge is presented as a commemorative piece tied to the Eufor Althea mission. It should be considered a keepsake or collector’s item rather than an official, authorized uniform insignia unless otherwise specified by the issuing authority.

Q: How can I purchase the Distintivo Althea Eufor?

A: Add the item to your cart on this product page to purchase. Availability is limited, so orders are fulfilled while stocks last.

Q: How should I clean and store the badge?

A: Clean with a soft, dry cloth and avoid chemicals or abrasives. Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight and moisture to help preserve the enamel and finish.

Tip: Choose the correct variant or size if multiple options are offered and browse related military surplus, tactical and police memorabilia to complete your collection or find a suitable display option.
