Product overview

The Telo Poncho Verde is a versatile, lightweight rain poncho designed for outdoor enthusiasts, hikers, campers, and tactical users who need reliable weather protection. It suits use in trekking, camping and general outdoor or duty situations where a compact, multifunctional cover is useful.

Definition: a waterproof poncho made from durable fabric (147 x 210 cm) with sealed seams, snap buttons and an adjustable hood, intended as a rain shell, backpack cover or emergency shelter. Keywords: tactical, military surplus, duty gear.

Main features

Built for protection and flexibility, the poncho balances weather resistance with light packability.

- Waterproof fabric with sealed seams to keep rain out.
- Dimensions 147 x 210 cm — large enough to wear over clothing and a pack.
- Snap buttons along the sides to convert into a shelter, ground sheet or backpack cover.
- Adjustable hood with drawcord for a snug fit in wind and rain.
- Multiple pockets for small essentials like phone, keys or map.
- Lightweight and compact — weighs about 355 g and folds small for easy storage.
- Green color for natural camouflage in outdoor settings.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the poncho as a simple rain shell: pull it over your clothing and gear for quick protection from sudden showers. Use the snap buttons to turn it into a temporary shelter, groundsheet or backpack cover when needed.

Quick answer: Yes — it works as a poncho, pack cover and emergency shelter. In most cases, carry it folded in your pack for unpredictable weather during trekking, camping, hunting or field duty.

Care and notes

Keep the poncho ready for repeated outdoor use with minimal maintenance.

- Clean with a damp cloth to remove mud and stains; avoid harsh scrubbing.
- Air dry completely before folding and storing to prevent odors or mildew.
- Inspect snaps and seams after heavy use and fasten snaps gently to avoid damage.

FAQ

Q: Is the Telo Poncho Verde fully waterproof?

A: The poncho is made from waterproof fabric with sealed seams designed to repel heavy rain. Performance can vary with prolonged exposure or damage to the material, so inspect it before extended use.

Q: Can I use the poncho as an emergency shelter or groundsheet?

A: Yes. The side snap buttons let you configure the poncho as a temporary shelter, a cover for a backpack, or a groundsheet in emergency situations.

Q: Will the poncho fit over my backpack or tactical jacket?

A: Its 147 x 210 cm size allows wearing it over most packs and outer layers. The wide lower opening is designed to accommodate additional gear while maintaining mobility.

Q: How much does the poncho weigh and how compact is it?

A: The poncho weighs approximately 355 g and folds compactly to save space in a daypack or kit bag, making it suitable for lightweight travel and field use.

Q: What can I store in the built-in pockets?

A: The multiple pockets are intended for small essentials such as a phone, keys, a map, or other small items you need quick access to in wet conditions.

Q: Is this poncho suitable for tactical or military surplus use?

A: The poncho’s durable, low-profile green finish and practical features make it appropriate for outdoor, tactical and military surplus-style uses where simple, reliable weather protection is required.

Tip: Choose the poncho if you need a lightweight, multipurpose rain cover; consider how you’ll use it (poncho vs. shelter) when packing and check related items like compression sacks or small tarps to complete your kit.
