Product overview

The Distintivo Indus Pakistan is a silver-plated commemorative badge made for people who took part in—or want to remember—the Missione Indus in Pakistan. It is suitable for collectors, veterans, and anyone interested in military surplus, tactical memorabilia, or police and duty gear.

Definition: a small, durable metal badge (diameter 2.4 cm) that serves as a tangible keepsake of the Missione Indus in Pakistan. The badge is made for display, collection, or gentle wear and is offered in limited quantities.

Main features

Quality construction and a clean, respectful design make this badge a suitable addition to collections of military, tactical, or police memorabilia.

- Material: silver-plated metal for a durable finish.
- Size: 2.4 cm diameter — compact and easy to display.
- Design: refined, mission-focused motif for collectors and personnel.
- Packaging: supplied in an elegant presentation box, ready for gifting or storage.
- Limited availability: produced in small quantities to preserve collector value.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the badge as a display item in a collection case, on a presentation board, or as a discreet keepsake for uniformed duties where permitted. It can also be carried as a personal memento in a pocket or wallet.

Quick answer: this badge is best used for display or as a commemorative keepsake. In most cases, collectors, veterans, and those interested in tactical or military surplus items will find it most fitting for their needs.

Care and notes

Simple care will keep the badge looking its best; avoid abrasive cleaners and store it dry when not in use.

- Wipe gently with a soft, dry cloth to remove fingerprints.
- Keep in the supplied presentation box to prevent scratches and tarnish.
- Returns accepted within 30 days if item is in original condition.
