Definition: this is a 37 mm wide rayon fabric ribbon featuring a white field with two black vertical poles at each end, symbolizing the hill that holds Udine Castle. Suitable for civic events, uniform displays, and commemorative collections in tactical, military surplus, or civic contexts.

- Standard width: 37 mm.
- Finish options: regular flat or slightly domed "Elite" style.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use it as a standalone ribbon on a lapel, attached to a ribbon bar, or as part of a multi-slot ribbon mount for formal displays. The ribbon fits common civic and uniform presentation uses.

In most cases, choose the Elite slightly domed finish for a more prominent display, or the flat format for a discreet look. Select the metal base with clip or screws if you need a ready-to-wear assembly for duty, police, or ceremonial uniforms.

Care and notes

Keep the ribbon looking its best by storing and handling it gently; rayon can show wear if exposed to harsh treatments.

- Store flat or on a ribbon bar to avoid creasing.
- Spot clean gently with a mild detergent; avoid bleaching or strong solvents.
- Choose clip or screw mounting depending on your uniform or display needs.
- Limited quantities are produced due to the commemorative nature; consider ordering the desired variant in advance.
